TO THE CLASS OF 1965

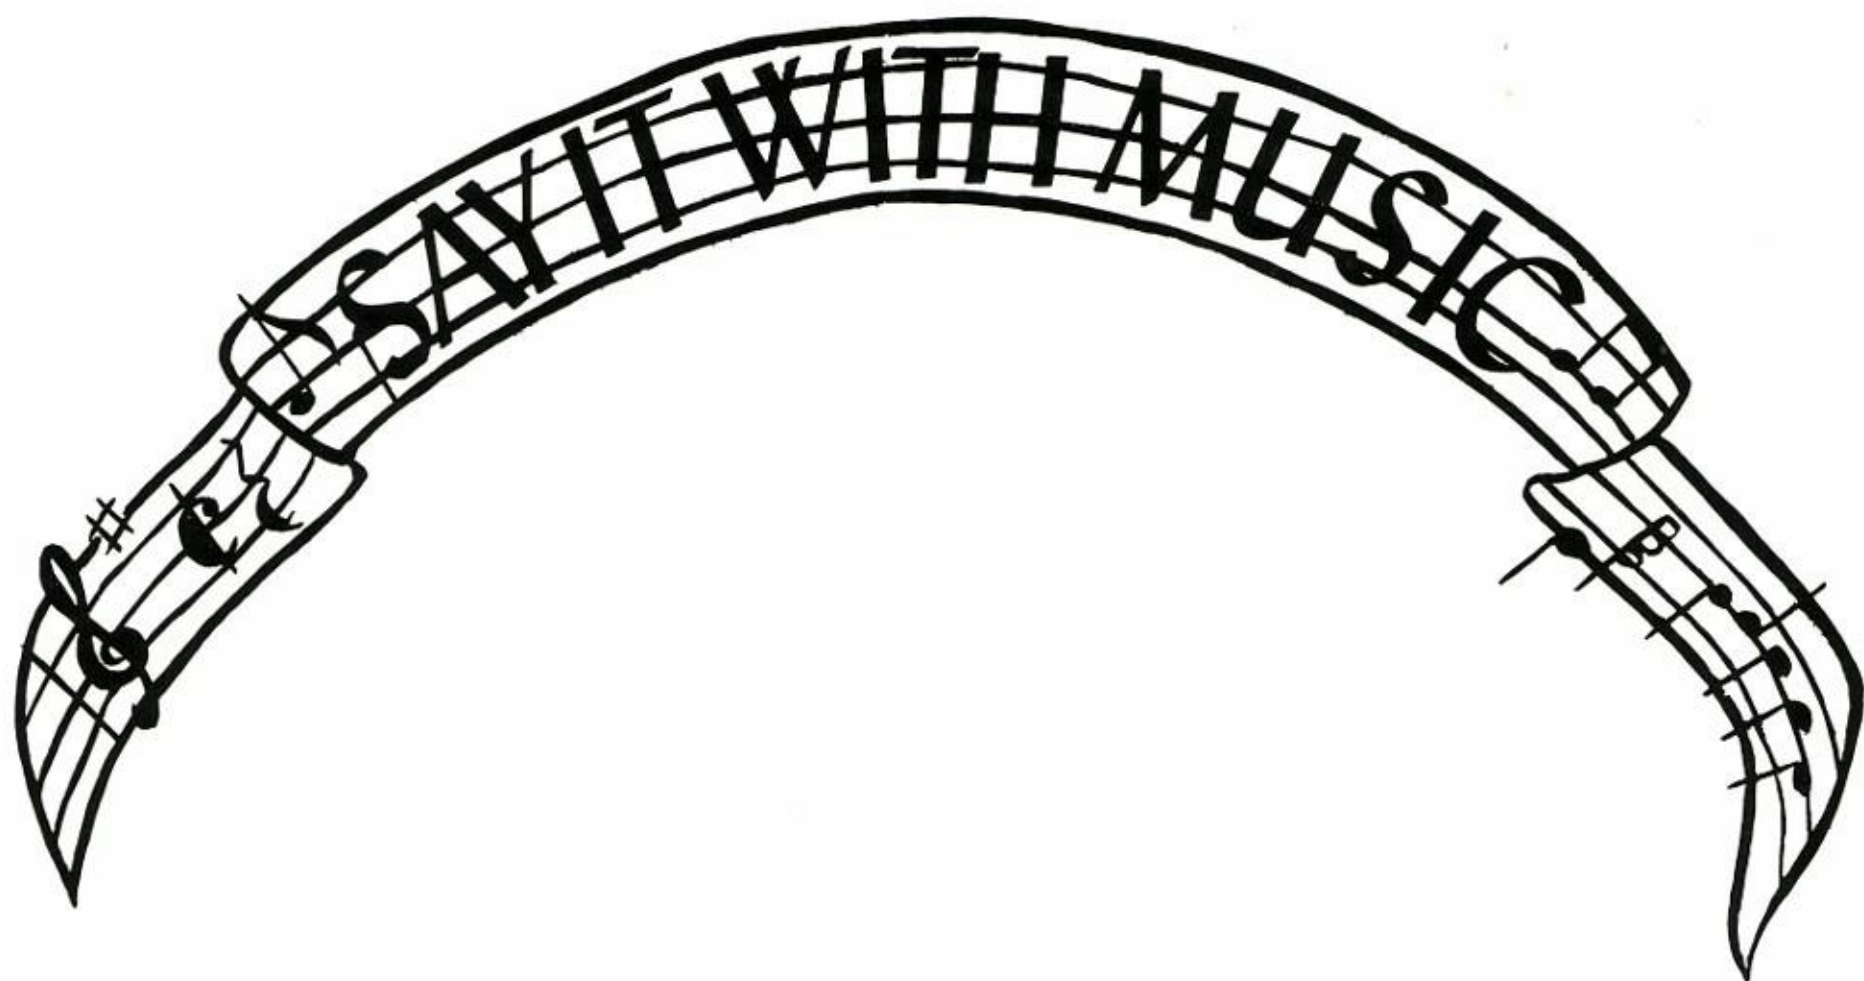

The task of writing a letter to the class of 1965 is not an easy one; it is always difficult to say farewell to any class, for it brings back memories of the close years of association. As in your theme, "Say It With Music", the melody lingers and grows with the years and often haunts one as he hears it and is reminded of the past.

We must be brought up sharply, however, for it is the future in which we are interested and not the past. You go forth from here to a college, for which we have tried to prepare you, for which we hope you have prepared yourselves. Your success there must be, in a sense, a yardstick of your success in the future, in which we have played a small part. We are hopeful that you will not forget the tradition of your past and that you will carry with you the ideals and spirit of the real meaning of education:

That meaning Robert M. Hutchins has expressed well:

"The aim of education is human excellence, both private and public. Its object is the excellence of man as an end, not as a means; and it regards the ends of life, and not the means of it. For this reason it is the education of free men."

MRS. JEAN CAMPBELL HAHNEL

DEDICATION

To Mrs. Jean Hahnel,

who for the past seven years has given to the students of Whitfield School the benefit of her knowledge, time, and understanding.

Mrs. Hahnel attended the University of Chicago, earned her Bachelor of Arts, and then remained for a year of post-graduate study. At the University of Chicago she became Review Editor of the JOURNAL OF GEOLOGY (1936-37). Her first teaching experience was in a one-room school in the Ozarks, the same district in which she became a social worker. In the fall of 1958 Mrs. Hahnel came to teach at Whitfield School and has been here ever since. In her first year here she inspired the founding of the Student Council and for several years was its guiding force. Mrs. Hahnel now teaches Earth Science and Biology, and up until this year taught a class in American Problems.

So, as Mrs. Jean C. Hahnel has dedicated herself to us, the students, we in turn dedicate this ILIAD to her with respect, fondness, and sincere gratitude.

Rusty ... How's Lisa? ... Mr. Cole's pet ... president of the Student Council ... doesn't believe in Todd's big deals ... have you ever played pool? ... hey, Rusty, when's the next party? ... always gets the worst of it at soccer games ... has a Mustang but wants a Rolls Royce ... says he will give up tennis ... he has got to do something ... likes Florida, Arizona, and blue-eyed blondes ... has eyes like a hawk ... plans to be an oceanographer ... Rusty, did you get a haircut? ... Now I ask you, what is Whitfield without Rusty?

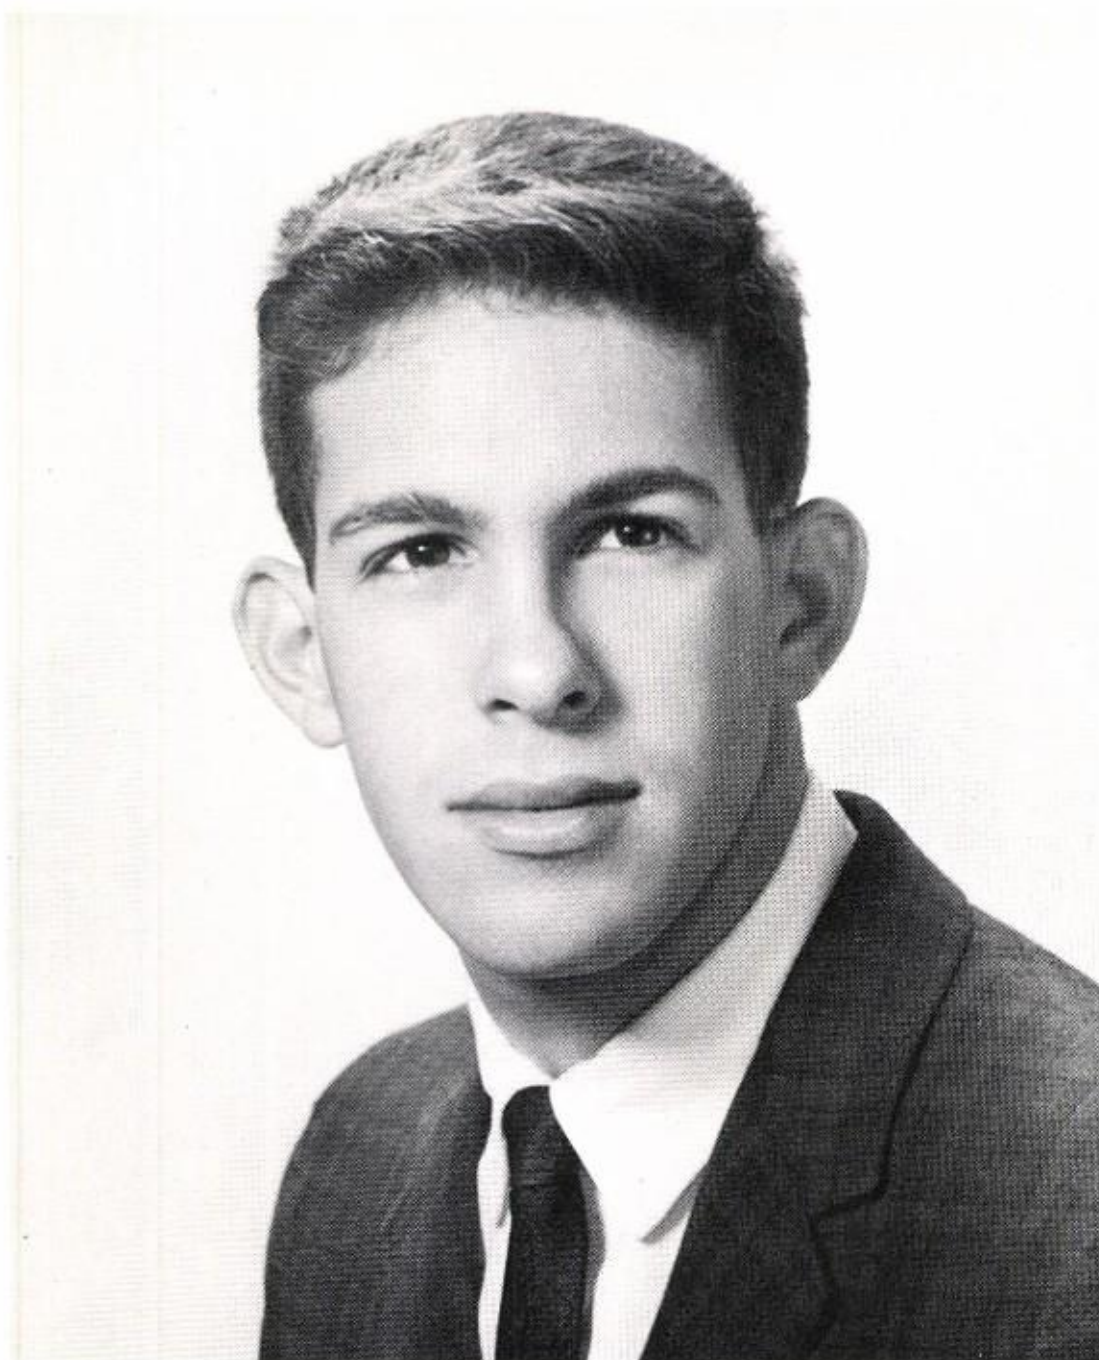

Dear Mike - Whitey - Hot Rod

Have fun over the summer. I have decided to go to Aspen in August so talk to your parents. I hope you get your 427 hemi in the near 50 years. Work hard, I think.

Rusty

Huh?

JEFFREY C. DICKLER

Jeff ... plays a mean guitar ... sold for $1.25 in the slave sale ... who was that brunette, I mean redhead, I mean blonde I saw you with last night? ... Jeff; will you please move your book bag? ... always losing his contacts ... ZAP!! ... can be found arguing about politics with Jake ... our mathematician and scientist ... last seen using a slide-rule ... last seen with Don Jenks ... can be found working on his term paper ... drives a red Chevelle ... can be found at the piano with Todd or singing with Ed ... With his personality and intelligence, Jeff will be a success in whatever he does.

Knowing you during this year has been great.

I will tell you my position as school "bad guy"? Duh! I'm in soccer.

Later of luck with Sherry she's a wonderful girl.

JUNIOR CLASS

FIRST ROW: S. Watkins, M. Kahle, R. Sale, D. Reed, C. Forman, S. Stout, A. Gazzoli, P. Moulton. SECOND ROW: P. Erker, M. Lewis, E. Yawitz, C. Word, S. Green, B. Smith, T. Brauner, S. Vosburgh, C. Engler.

This year's junior class distinguished itself in both leadership and responsibility. Bake sales and Curt Engler's efficiency as secretary-treasurer put the class high on the list for contributions made to the United Fund. Dues were collected by Curt Engler throughout the year, and the class was happy to note that Stock Vosburg and Curt Engler now have accounts at Brooks Brothers. The remaining money will go toward the senior gift next year.

The class, under the direction of Mrs. O'Brien, conducted many successful advisory periods in preparation for College Boards. Led by Pamela Moulton, as president; Barbara Smith, vice-president; Curt Engler, secretary-treasurer; and Stock Vosburgh, Social Council representative, the class is looking forward to a successful senior year.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

FIRST ROW: J. Warden, P. Wright, C. Green, G. Honig, B. Spencer, J. Richardson, H. Neuman, L. Nemec, M. K. West. SECOND ROW: J. Rothbarth, B. Duhme, H. Giese, B. Koenig, J. Lieberman, T. Hagnauer, D. Will, G. Frick, E. Becker, R. Laidet. ABSENT: R. Dalton, K. Love, H. Stephens, C. Wadum.

This year the sophomore class elected Edward Becker, president; Bill Koenig, vice-president; Connie Green, secretary; and Jeffrey Lieberman, treasurer to serve in this important second year of high school. Under the direction of Mr. Derrickson, our adviser, the sophomores put out the BUZZ BOOK and made contributions to THE WHITFIELDER.

New additions to our class were Judy Warden from Villa Duchesne, Kim Love from Mary Institute, Howard Stephens from Ashville, Jim Rothbarth from East Ladue Junior High School, and Raymond Laidet from Parkway.

The sophomore class of '64 and '65 has had a rich, rewarding, and successful year.

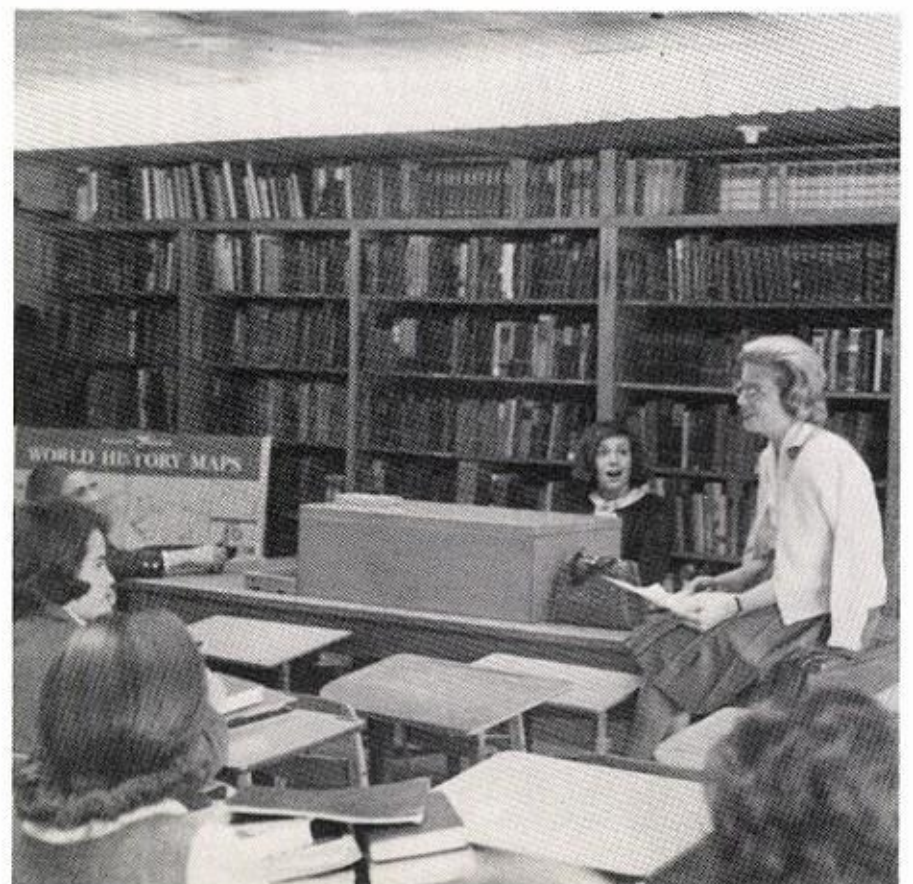

FRESHMAN CLASS

FIRST ROW: J. Crawford, J. Becker, L. Dozier, A. Moulton, C. Ferer, C. Leschen, M. Cole, B. Schultz, L. Fowler. SECOND ROW: E. Green, R. Garrett, M. Rupe, M. VanDyke, R. Tennant, J. Coe, S. Timmerman, F. Thatcher, J. Freiheit, K. Winston, S. Vollmar. ABSENT: D. Burst, L. Roberts.

This year the members of the freshman class decided to elect their officers each semester. The first semester's officers were Christy Ferer, president; Cathy Leschen, vice-president; Sandy Moulton, secretary; and Ricky Tennant, treasurer. The Student Council representative was Linda Fowler, and the representative to the newly formed Social Council was Jim Coe. The old class welcomed newcomers Lila Roberts from Taylor School, Keith Winston from Wydown School, and Scott Timmerman from Nipher Junior High School.

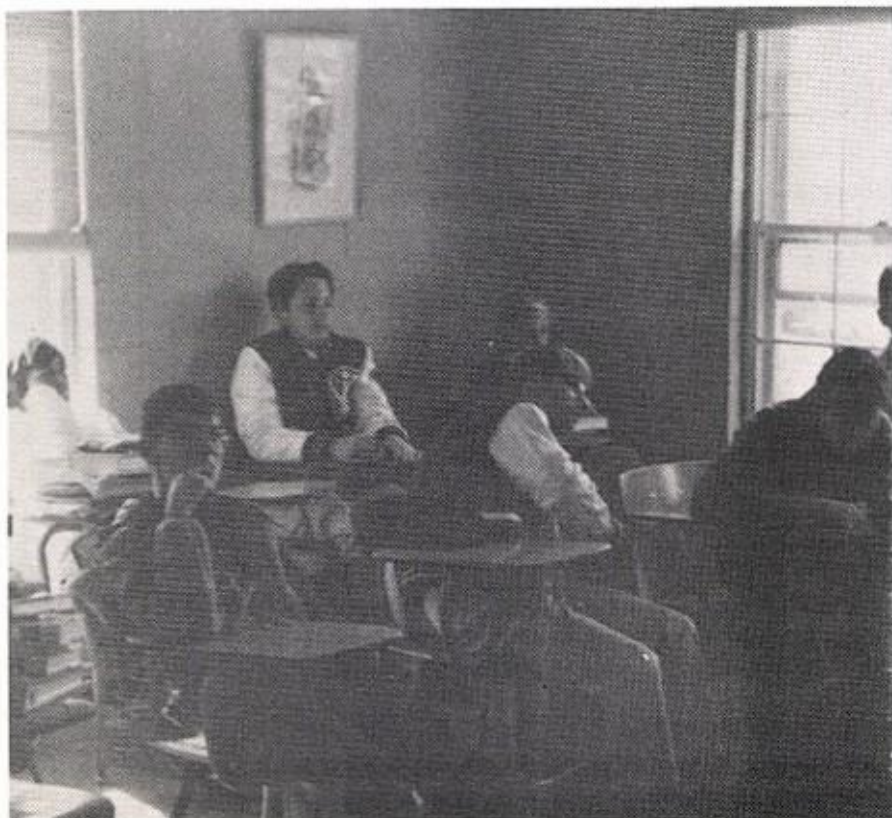

The freshman class undertook the worthwhile, and rewarding, project of adopting a child from Korea through the Foster Parents Plan. To raise money for the project the class held bake sales and a paper drive.

EIGHTH GRADE

FIRST ROW: B. Katz, P. Hunter, N. Mills, N. Katz, D. Nemec, P. Rounce. SECOND ROW: L. Roos, C. Pettus, J. Ford, M. Kratz, T. Delf, E. Benoist, J. Collins, B. Harlan, G. Steiner. ABSENT: R. Wilson

Whitfield's eighth grade welcomed five new members to the class this year. The class began the school year with Jim Ford, president; Elliot Benoist, vice-president; Nancy Katz, secretary; Mike Kratz, treasurer; Jim Collins, Social Council representative; and Geoffrey Steiner, Student Council representative.

Few failed to hear of the eighth grade and its many deeds. Our class entered upon a program in which the future of each member was enriched in several fields. For one, the class took a field trip to the St. Louis Planetarium to seek a greater knowledge of astronomy.

Bake sales contributed to a universal understanding of the value of a dollar. However, we believe that the eighth grade's main contribution was the great attempt to enlighten the entire lower school on the campaign issues of the 1964 election year.

SEVENTH GRADE

FIRST ROW: G. Scharon, P. Ferer, A. Wolfson, J. Golding, A. Carlin, A. Adderton, A. Hoffmeister.
SECOND ROW: P. Cady, J. Lipscomb, L. Hill, J. Richardson, E. Davis, N. Gilster, B. Brereton, F. Taylor, E. Engler, M. Katz, J. Hunter, D. Glunt. ABSENT: D. Glick, H. Rand.

The 1964-1965 seventh grade class came from various schools, the majority from Rohan Woods.

The seventh grade elected temporary presidents every two weeks for the first six weeks. They were Ted Engler, Philip Cady, and Anne Wolfson. In November permanent officers--Brian Brereton, president; Anne Wolfson, vice-president; Helen Rand, secretary; Patty Ferer, treasurer; Lockwood Hill, Social Council representative; and Ford Taylor, Student Council representative --were elected.

During each advisory period we discussed recent events or class problems with our adviser, Mrs. Hahnel.

ATHLETICS

"Take Me Out To The Ball game"

GIRLS' GYM CLASS

This year the girls' gym class was under the leadership of Mrs. Gaiennie. We had two organized hockey teams, the Greens and the Whites, representing the school's colors.

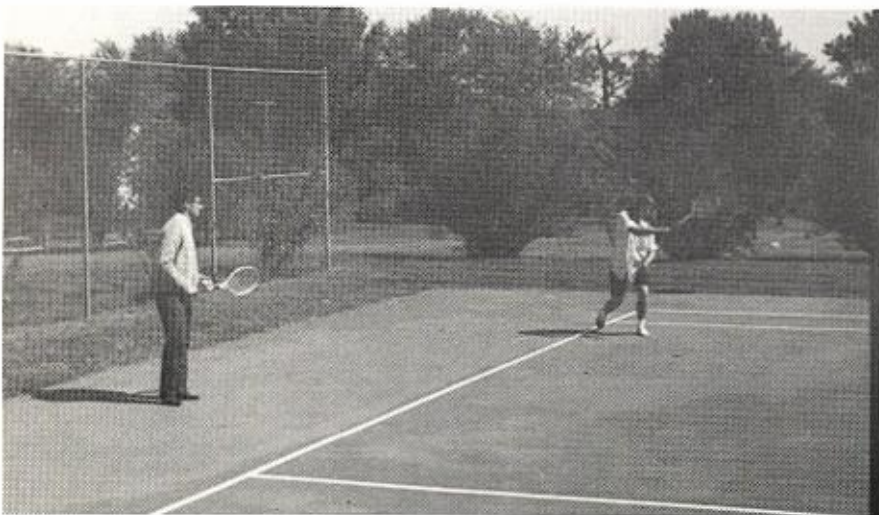

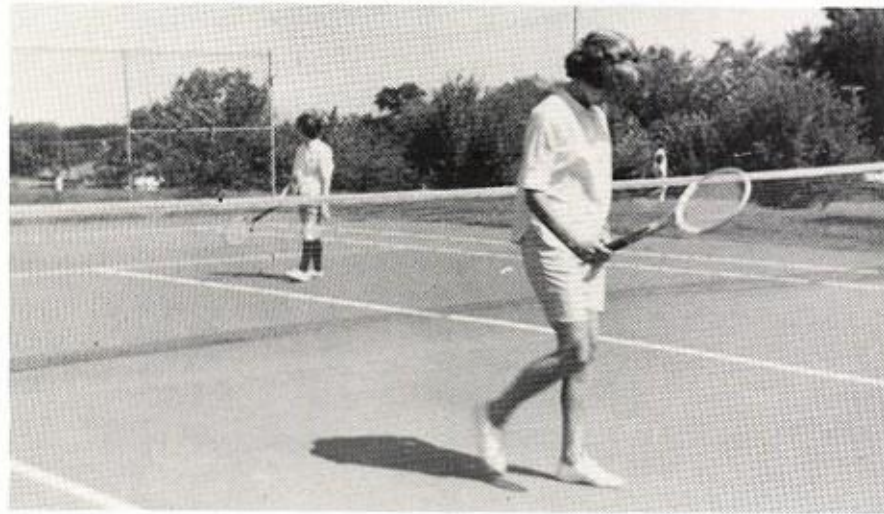

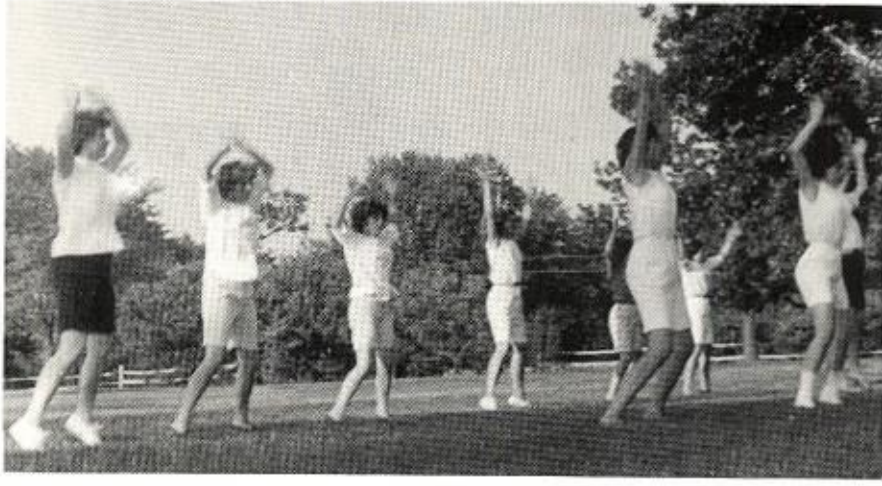

Later a group of girls met with Mrs. Gaiennie for practice in hockey; others, led by Sherry Erker, played soccer. Many of the girls participated in the tennis program coached by Mr. Larry Miller. Volley ball and horseback riding, the latter once a week, were offered to those interested.

The girls took advantage of the variety of sports offered during the past year.

GIRLS' GYM INFORMALS

UPPER SCHOOL BOYS' ATHLETICS

FIRST ROW: J. Lewin, P. Erker, E. Becker, S. Vosburgh, R. Carlson, T. Green, B. Duhme, C. Podmaniczky, D. Will, J. Rothbarth. SECOND ROW: G. Frick, M. Lewis, S. Mabuice, J. Van Dyke, T. Hagnauer, J. Lieberman, E. Gaiennie, B. Koenig, R. Laidet, C. Engler, D. Jenks, H. Giese, J. Dickler.

The prime objective of the athletic program at Whitfield is to try to instill into the boys the feeling of teamwork, sportsmanship, spirit, and most of all, a pride in competing. Each boy of the upper school received a bit of this vital training under the competent eye of Mr. Edward Steele.

Mr. Steele stressed fundamentals and physical conditioning. Each day the boys separated into two teams and played while Mr. Steele pointed out weaknesses and strong points. Calisthenics were also a major part of the program.

We are sure that all the boys have profited from their athletic experiences this year.

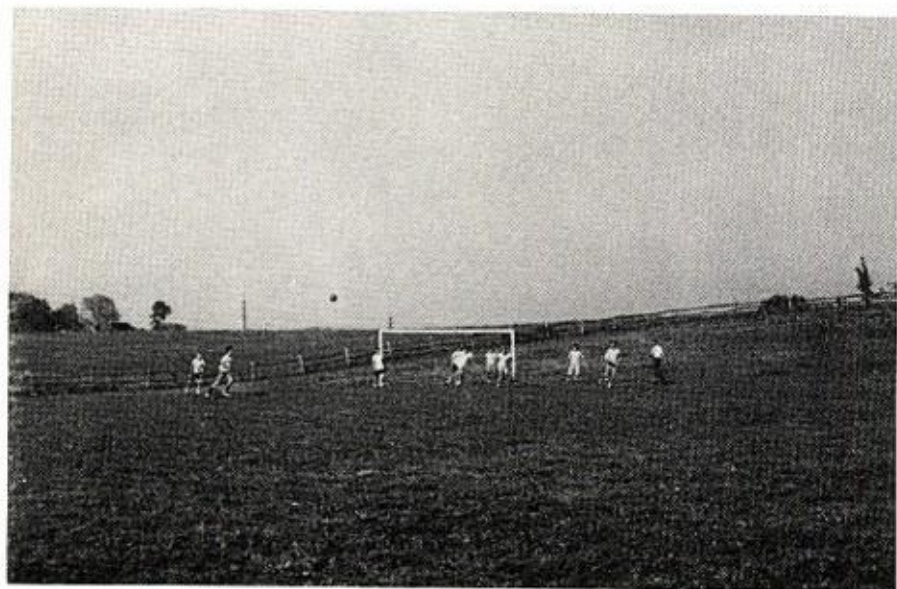

LOWER SCHOOL BOYS' ATHLETICS

FIRST ROW: M. Katz, D. Glunt, L. Hill, J. Hunter, J. Lipscomb, P. Cady, B. Harlan, C. Pettus.
 SECOND ROW: N. Gilster, S. Vollmar, G. Steiner, B. Garrett, J. Richardson, E. Davis, E. Engler,
 F. Taylor, K. Winston, L. Roos, E. Benoist. THIRD ROW: M. Kratz, J. Ford, M. Rupe, F. Thatcher,
 M. Van Dyke, J. Coe, R. Tennant, T. Delf, S. Timmerman, B. Berereton, J. Freiheit, J. Collins.

The boys in the lower school participated in a varied program of sports activities, mainly consisting of soccer. They also took part in football, rugby, baseball, and, of course, calisthenics.

Mr. Steele stated that there is good talent in the lower school. Showing potential are Brian Brereton, Mike Kratz, and Bob Garrett. From the group we are expecting good varsity teams in the next few years.

VARSITY SOCCER

FIRST ROW: M. Rupe, E. Becker, D. Will, R. Carlson, J. Lewin, H. Stephens, R. Garret, G. Frick.
SECOND ROW: Mr. Steele, M. Lewis, R. Tennant, J. Coe, E. Gaiennie, R. Dalton, C. Podmaniczky, S. Vosburgh, R. Laidet, J. Dickler.

The 1965 soccer season has been a year of remodeling. The season was more successful in knowledge gained than in games won. Our many new players have had the experience of battle and have emerged experienced players. Our soccer coach, Mr. Steele, who came to us a veteran soccer player, has coached well and taught us much. Captains Jim Lewin and Howard Stephens plus Rusty Carlson, Chris Podmaniczky, and Dave Will supported the rookie team with their skill gained in past seasons. As a result of this year's training and games, next year's team will have a solid group of players with more than just potential, but real skill. We are sure that next year's team will have an excellent season.

ORGANIZATIONS

"Whistle While You Work"

STUDENT COUNCIL

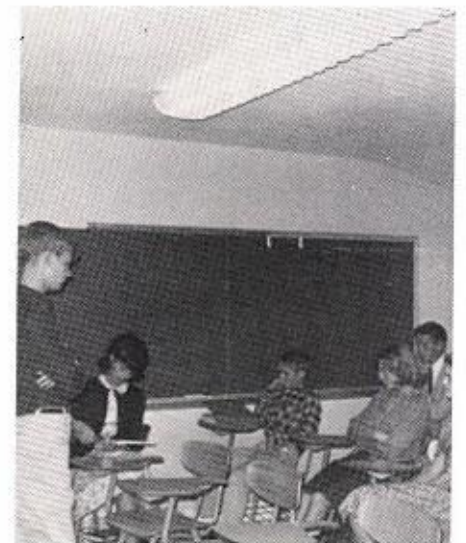

FROM LEFT: M. Van Dyke, A. Gazzoli, D. Will, Mr. Keefe, G. Frick, J. Glassman, L. Fowler, G. Steiner.

This year, the Student Council proved instrumental in the success of the 1964-65 school year. Ably led by Rusty Carlson, the Council sponsored many programs.

The other members of the Council were senior, Joan Glassman; junior and, secretary, Angela Gazzoli; sophomores, Greg Frick and David Will; freshmen, Mathew Van Dyke and Linda Fowler. The eighth grade representative was Geoffrey Steiner, and the seventh grade representative was Ford Taylor.

The out-side speaker programs, canned food drive, United Fund drive, and the Get-Acquainted Day--an orientation day for new students--were all successful programs of the Council.

The faculty adviser was Mr. Keefe, who, for the second year in a row, was a liasion between the Council and the faculty.

SOCIAL COUNCIL

The newest organization at Whitfield this year is the Social Council. The council's eight members are Lockwood Hill, representing the seventh grade; Jim Collins, the eighth; Jim Coe, the ninth; Helen Neuman, the tenth; Stock Vosburgh, the eleventh; and Todd Green, the twelfth. The two members who represent the Student Council are Joan Glassman and Greg Frick. Joan was elected secretary-treasurer of the club, and Todd was elected president.

The club's primary interests are to create more social affairs and to stimulate more school spirit. The main social event of the council was the Junior-Senior prom, held at the Bath & Tennis Country Club. The proceeds from several parties and a large donation from the Mothers' Council increased the funds for Whitfield's first prom.

The Council of 65 hopes that the Social Council of 66 will have another successful year of social events.

"Shhh" was the sound most common at yearbook meetings. The most popular phrase was, "We're behind schedule!"

Nevertheless, all the work was enjoyable and enlightening. The trials and anxieties of putting together the yearbook wore many tempers thin, constantly frustrated our exalted Editor, and confused the study hall proctors.

Jim Lewin, our Editor, has led us through the year shouting, laughing, and typing. From the very beginning Don Jenks, yearbook photographer, went to work taking pictures in volume. Don's success and the excellence of Mr. Derrickson's contributions are evident in the quality of the photographs in this yearbook. Cindy Powers, Pam Moulton, Rusty Carlson, and Angela Gazoli rode their rulers, pencils, and layout mats from page to page putting the pages together while Jeff Dickler tried to keep up on supplying material to fill the spaces. Claudia Forman and Sally Glassberg worked on the business end of the project, keeping the ILIAD out of the red. In the midst of this pseudochaos Miss Kaufman remained an inconspicuous but firm supervisor, driving us on when we slowed down and encouraging us at all times to get the yearbook done.

Now we are done and we are satisfied. We hope that those who will follow us to work on yearbooks will carry on the tradition of the ILIAD with the spirit and good feeling we have enjoyed.

LAY-OUT

Terry Brauner, Cindy Powers, Pam Moulton.

ART-PHOTOGRAPHY

Jake Van Dyke, Don Jenks.

THE WHITFIELDER

FIRST ROW: B. Spencer, H. Neuman, G. Honig, J. Richardson, M.K. West, P. Moulton, T. Brauner, A. Gazzoli, P. Wright. SECOND ROW: C. Green, B. Duhme, S. Vosburg, C. Wadum, J. Lieberman, E. Becker, T. Green, R. Carlson, K. Love.

Jeff Lieberman, who will be a junior next year, has been named the 1965-1966 editor of THE WHITFIELDER. Rusty Carlson, retiring-editor, made the appointment on the basis of Jeff's work on the publication for the last two years.

Rusty also named Benton Duhme photo and layout editor and Mary Kay West librarian. Both these appointees are Jeff's classmates.

Don Jenks contributed pictures to THE WHITFIELDER. Jake Van Dyke earned a by-line in THE WHITFIELDER for his tense, witty account of the school's mock presidential election.

Mr. Derrickson, serving as adviser, supplemented students' photos with some of his own and made plans to take editors on field trips to newspaper and printing plants.

LIBRARIANS

A new arrangement of shelving the books was introduced in the school library this year and has been carried on by Mr. Gaiennie. Each student was assigned one or two tiers for the school year by Mr. Derrickson and was responsible for keeping them in order by checking them daily.

The improvements made last year in the library, including the installation of the carpeting have proved effective this year.

The addition of many new books to our library has improved the wide selection of books available to the student body.

We are grateful to Mr. Derrickson, who has continued his policies of contributing books to the library from those he reviews from the ST. LOUIS GLOBE-DEMOCRAT and of printing library information sheets for distribution among the students.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

FIRST ROW: J. Lewin, R. Carlson, T. Green. SECOND ROW: C. Podmaniczky, D. Will, E. Becker, J. Dickler. ABSENT: R. Dalton, C. Engler.

This year was the first full year for the Lettermen's Club, and it looks as if it is here to stay. The club was guided through the year by Rusty Carlson, president; Todd Green, vice-president; and Curt Engler, secretary-treasurer.

The purpose of the club is to boost school spirit. During the past year pre-game pep rallies, arranged with the help of the directors, were the principal means of accomplishing this. At the end of the soccer season new members of the club were voted in by the members at large, and a party was given at Todd Green's house. Early in the year the club backed the canned food drive, each member collecting about fifty cans.

The present members hope that the club will flourish and grow and create a tradition of spirit and sportsmanship.

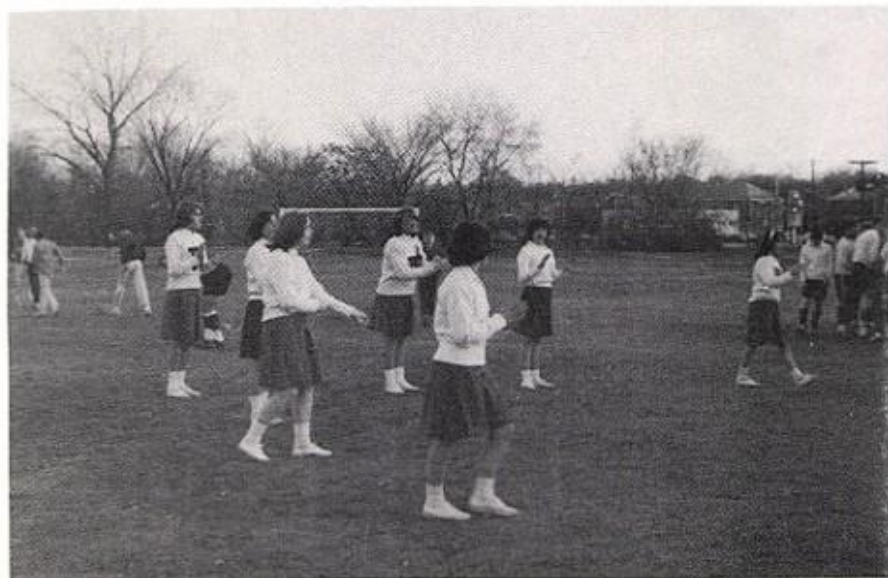

CHEERLEADERS

A precedent was set this year in the selection of our cheerleaders. Rather than holding the usual try-outs and election, Mrs. Gaiennie, the girls' gym instructor, sponsored the forming of the squad. The members of the squad then chose Randa Sale as their captain.

The general result of the new procedure seems good. The cheerleaders were better organized, more spirited, and more vocal than previous squads, and helped considerably in boosting game attendance.

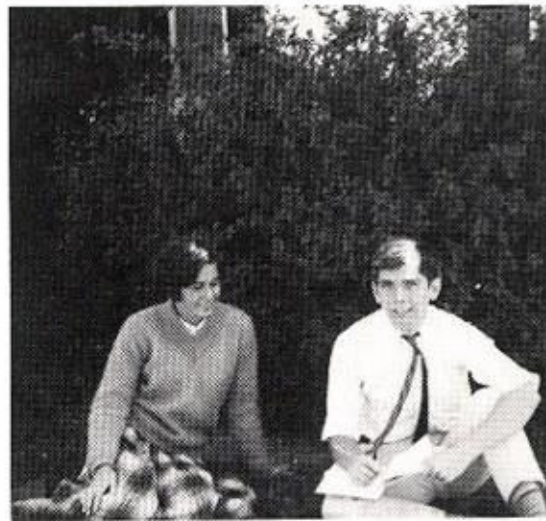

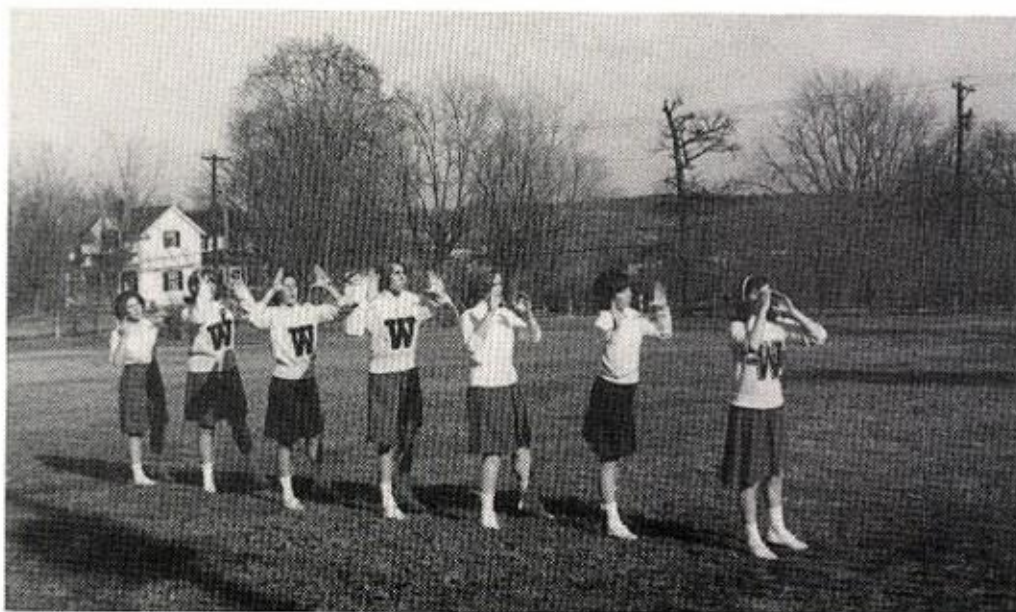

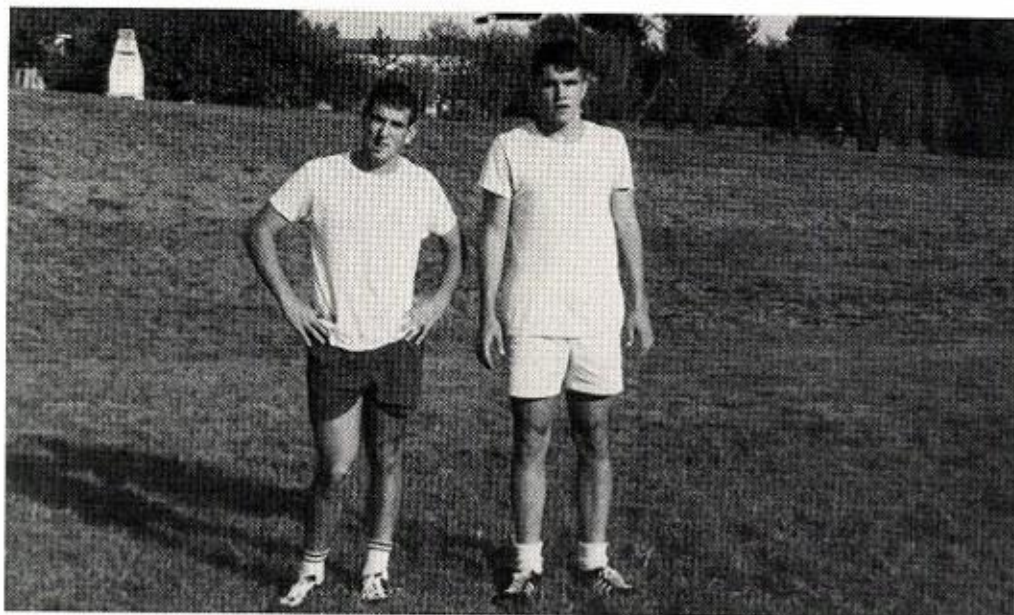

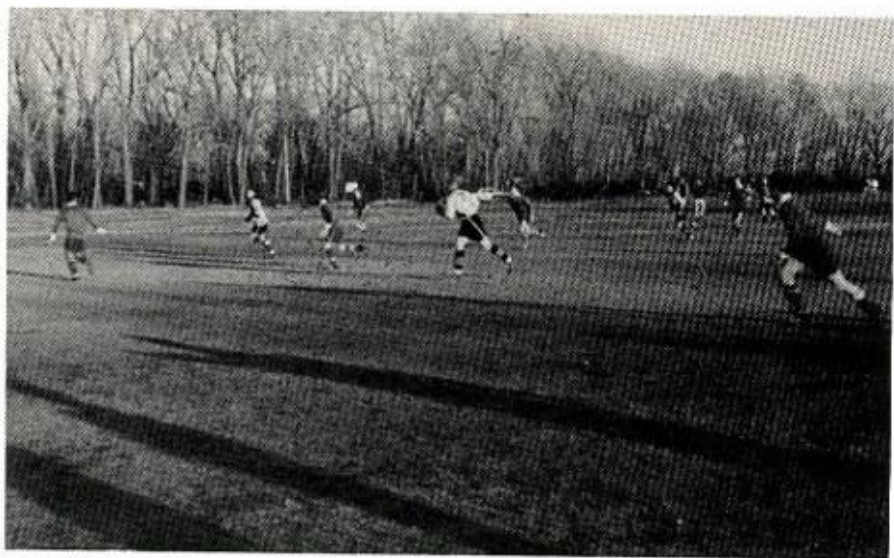

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

LEFT TO RIGHT: C. Forman, Miss Kaufman, A. Gazzoli.

The AD SAPIENTIAM Chapter of the National Honor Society, founded in 1960, has two members: Claudia Forman and Angela Gazzoli. The major purpose of the society is to promote scholarship, character, leadership, and service to the school. Besides proctoring classes, this year's members voted on students of the quarter from both the upper and lower schools. A breakfast was given in February honoring the students of the first and second quarters: Jeffrey Dickler, Linda Fowler, Sally Glassberg, and Dorothy Nemec; and Miss Kaufman, the sponsor of the society.

THE SECRET

It started with a spot of snow
That melted in the sun.
The ground which soaked the water up
Swore she would tell no one.
Then soon the verdant grass grew up;
Then followed the flowers too.
They told the brook, who told the bush,
And soon the wildlife knew.
The creatures sniffed the air, and thus,
They breathed it to the breeze.
The breeze blew briskly upward, telling
All the tallest trees.
The trees burst full of buds who told
The birds who soared the sky.
The birds sang out to all the fish
As they went swimming by,
And soon the news was spread to every
Place both far and near,
And the secret is no secret now:
Spring is finally here.

Barbara Smith

The sunset that I saw last night
Was all a big mistake.
Its brilliant red and orange bright
Reflected by the lake.

It really had no right to be
In such a world as this,
Where most can never know the touch
Of beauty's own sweet kiss;

Where most must live in poverty,
In squalor and disease;
Where most must never stand erect
But fall upon their knees.

The sunset that I saw last night
In this unfair world--it had no right.

M-m-m-m, nice material!

Haven't we met someplace before?

Oh-h-h, these lunches!

You could use some of that greasy kid stuff.

Be-e-e quiet.

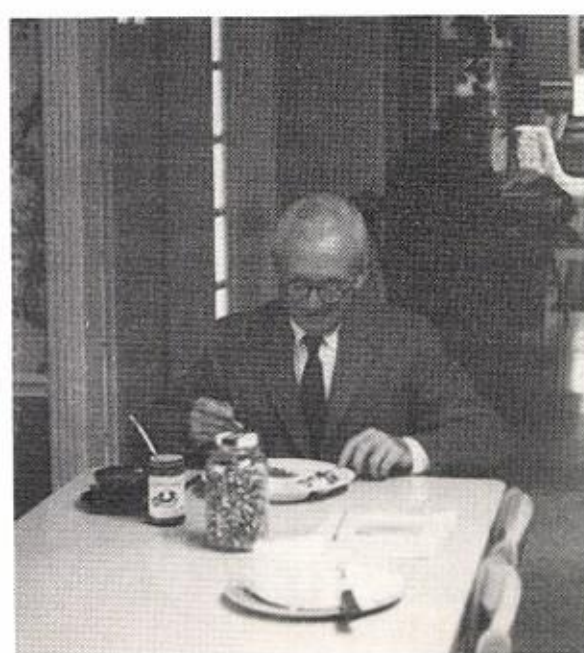

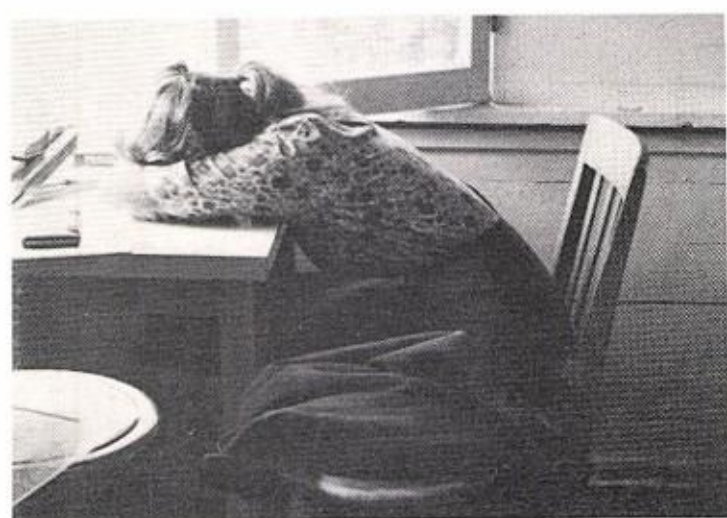

Comfortable?

OUR EXALTED SELVES

We, the members of the class of 1965, in order to spread the word of our glory, promote our self-esteem and leave a fair picture of ourselves to those who will follow us, do submit this entry to the ILIAD of 1965.

For the purpose of achieving senior privileges we loaf harder than any other class at Whitfield School.

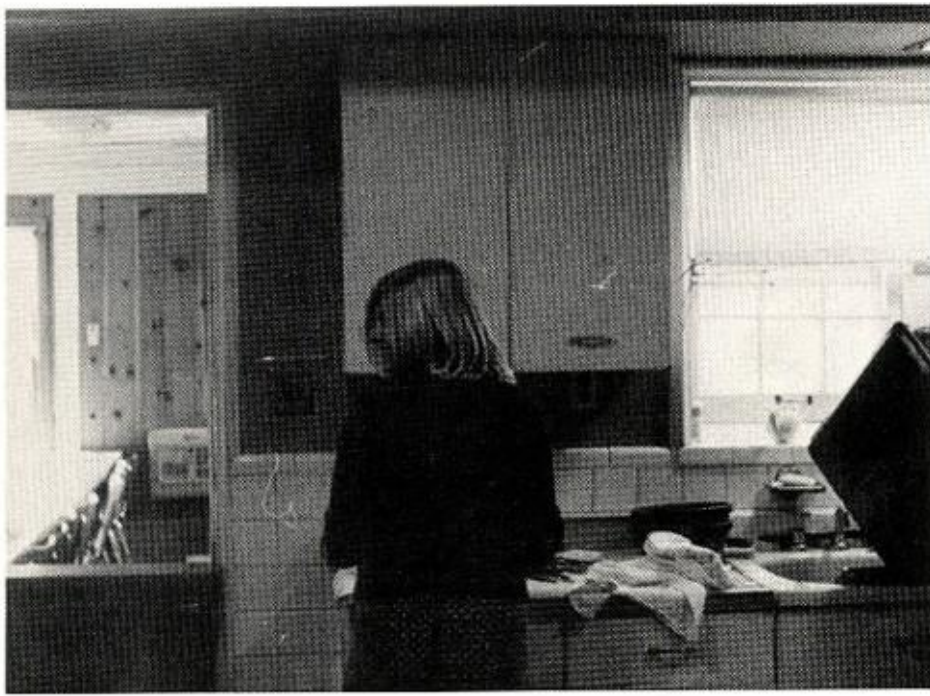

In order to have fun we plan better parties and slave sales and raffles, tell better jokes, and raise more commotion than any other class in existence.

In order to make more "progress" we hold the most undemocratic advisories in the country.

To promote our self-esteem we allow these extraordinary photographs of ourselves to be placed in this yearbook.

And, to leave a true picture of ourselves to posterity, we naturally had the pictures touched up a bit.

To any questions referring to the self-evident truths in this article we hereby plead the 5th Amendment.

Let's have meat and potatoes today.

Oh! It's on backwards?

Do What!!

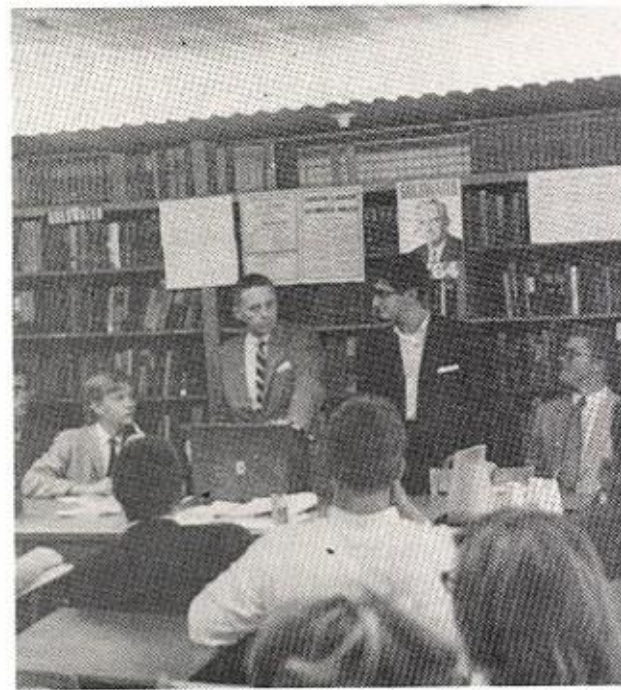

Lost?

Me Tarzan!

I think we're lost!
